

PEACE!

ARE YOU CONCERNED?

The Women's International League

FACTS THAT MATTER . . .

The League is an international organization with members in 49 countries.

It was founded in 1915 under the guidance of Jane Addams.

Jane Addams, first Honorary International President, and Emily Greene Balch, her present successor, have been awarded the Nobel Peace Prize.

The purpose of the League is to promote world peace.

WHAT IS THE PROGRAM OF THE LEAGUE?

International order based on arbitration;

Education for world citizenship;

Action for constructive legislation; and

Joint action with members in 49 countries on world issues.

A FULL AND VARIED PROGRAM

NATIONALLY

Meetings with speakers of national and international interests.

Study groups on vital issues; conferences and institutes.

Letter-writing sessions on proposed legislation and congressional lobbying.

National and foreign service projects.

INTERNATIONALLY

International Congresses

International summer schools.

Inter-American Conferences

LEAGUE SERVICES

Speaker's Bureau—informed WIL speakers for meetings.

Literature—popular pamphlets on national and world issues.

FOUR LIGHTS—monthly newsletter of national WIL activities.

Legislation—monthly bulletins on pending legislative action.

International Circular Letter—newsletter of WIL activities in other countries.

Branches—throughout the United States and the world.

Official observer at the United Nations.

THE LEAGUE ADVOCATES

Strengthening of the United Nations;

International Control of Atomic Energy;

Inter-racial and intercultural cooperation;

World Organization through International Law; and Universal Disarmament.

IN 1947 THE LEAGUE URGED THIS LEGISLATION:

The Marshall Plan for aid in European Reconstruction;

Stratton Bill for the admission of Displaced Persons;

Fair Employment Practice Commission Bill to prevent job discrimination;

Reciprocal Trade Agreements and the International Trade Organization.

Honorary National President
HANNAH CLOTHIER HULL

National President
ANNALEE STEWART

Among the National Sponsors are:

Henry Cadbury	Edouard Lindeman
Henry Hitt Crane	Violet Oakley
Dorothy Canfield Fisher	Clarence Pickett
Alice Hamilton	Harlow Shapley
John Haynes Holmes	Norman Thomas
Rufus Jones	Dorothy Thompson
Oswald Garrison Villard

“Nothing could be worse than the fear that one had given up too soon, had left one effort unexpended which might have helped the world.”

— JANE ADDAMS,
Co-founder of the Women's International League

ARE YOU CONCERNED ABOUT PEACE?

YOU CAN DO SOMETHING IMPORTANT

BECOME A MEMBER NOW.

LIC 1

B36